Scouting...

At Aullwood!

Aullwood Audubon Center and Farm's 200 acre sanctuary is the perfect place for Girl Scouts to learn about the natural world! Come for an unforgettable visit and complete requirements for a badge while you are here!

Service Projects

Aullwood encourages Girl Scouts to complete Service Projects in addition to the programs listed! From planting native plants to removing unwanted vegetation, there's something for every Senior Girl Scout.

Voice for Animals Badge

Be apart of a real working farm! Learn all about livestock breeds, their digestive systems, diseases and dietary needs. Learn how livestock are handled and the vital role they play in America's food chain. Discuss important animal issues and your role as a consumer. Experience your inner farmer!
Meets requirements 3 and 5.

Locavore Badge

In Ohio, there are many local farms that produce a variety of delicious foods. A locavore is someone committed to eating locally grown, seasonal foods. Find out how far food travels to reach your table, what foods are in season during the year and what we grow in Aullwood's garden. Learn how to cook a simple, local dish and enjoy the taste of fresh food.

Meets requirements 1, 2, 3, 4.

Adventurer Badge

Ready to learn something new in the great outdoors? Come stomp in the creek, go on a nature hike, look for tracks on the trails, go birdwatching and explore nature. Learn to collect different types of wood and build a campfire with it. Discover how to construct a simple bird house and learn ways to improve your community. Take an adventure at Aullwood!

Meets requirements 1, 2, 3, 4, & part of 5.

Schedule your Program TODAY!
