

Aullwood Audubon Center and Farm Scout Overnight Registration Form

Tara Pitstick, Scout Coordinator
(937) 890-2968 or tpitstick@audubon.org

Aullwood's scout overnight experiences are exciting for children of all ages! Tailored to your group's interests and needs, the overnight can include night hikes, games, badge-specific activities, movies, live animal sessions, and farm chores. Please contact Aullwood's Scout Coordinator, Tara Pitstick, to plan your troop's program. Groups can visit the Center and Farm and sleep in the nature center auditorium. Come prepared to have a unique and unforgettable experience!

Scout overnights generally begin at 7:00 p.m. and last until 10:30 a.m. the following day. There is some flexibility regarding these times. Scout groups are responsible for arranging for their meals. A kitchen is available.

Registration is on a first-come, first-serve basis and a 50% deposit along with the registration form is necessary to hold your date. The final payment and all liability forms are due 1 week before the scheduled overnight.

We will not refund the deposit if you cancel a program less than 2 weeks before its scheduled date.
